Leah Perrault has served as the Director of Pastoral Services for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon since 2007. Leah has a master's of arts in pastoral theology from the University of St. Michael's College at the Toronto School of Theology (2009); she earned this degree without drinking a single cup of coffee. Her bachelor's of arts in English comes from Campion College at the University of Regina (2005), where she perfected the art of writing in the early mornings before sunrise, while her room mates were still sleeping.

Leah and her husband Marc have been blessed with three amazing little people – Robyn, Eliot and Charlize. Their home is full of noise, books, toys, and big ideas.

She is the author and co-author of two books: "Theology of the Body for Everybody" and "How Far Can We Go?: A Catholic Guide to Sex and Dating". To learn more about our guest speaker visit Leah's website at leahperrault.com
